

@sofia.marbella

First Steps in Etiquette & Manners

How to sit properly on a sofa, like a lady?

- Stand as close as you can to your seat, slide one foot back then gracefully lower yourself.
- Place your hands in your lap while crossing and uncrossing.
- Keep your legs and knees at a 90° angle to your pelvis, in front of you or angle your knees to either the left or the right. Alternatively, cross your ankles, but never sit with your legs apart

Click here to watch reel

Learn how to sit like a lady

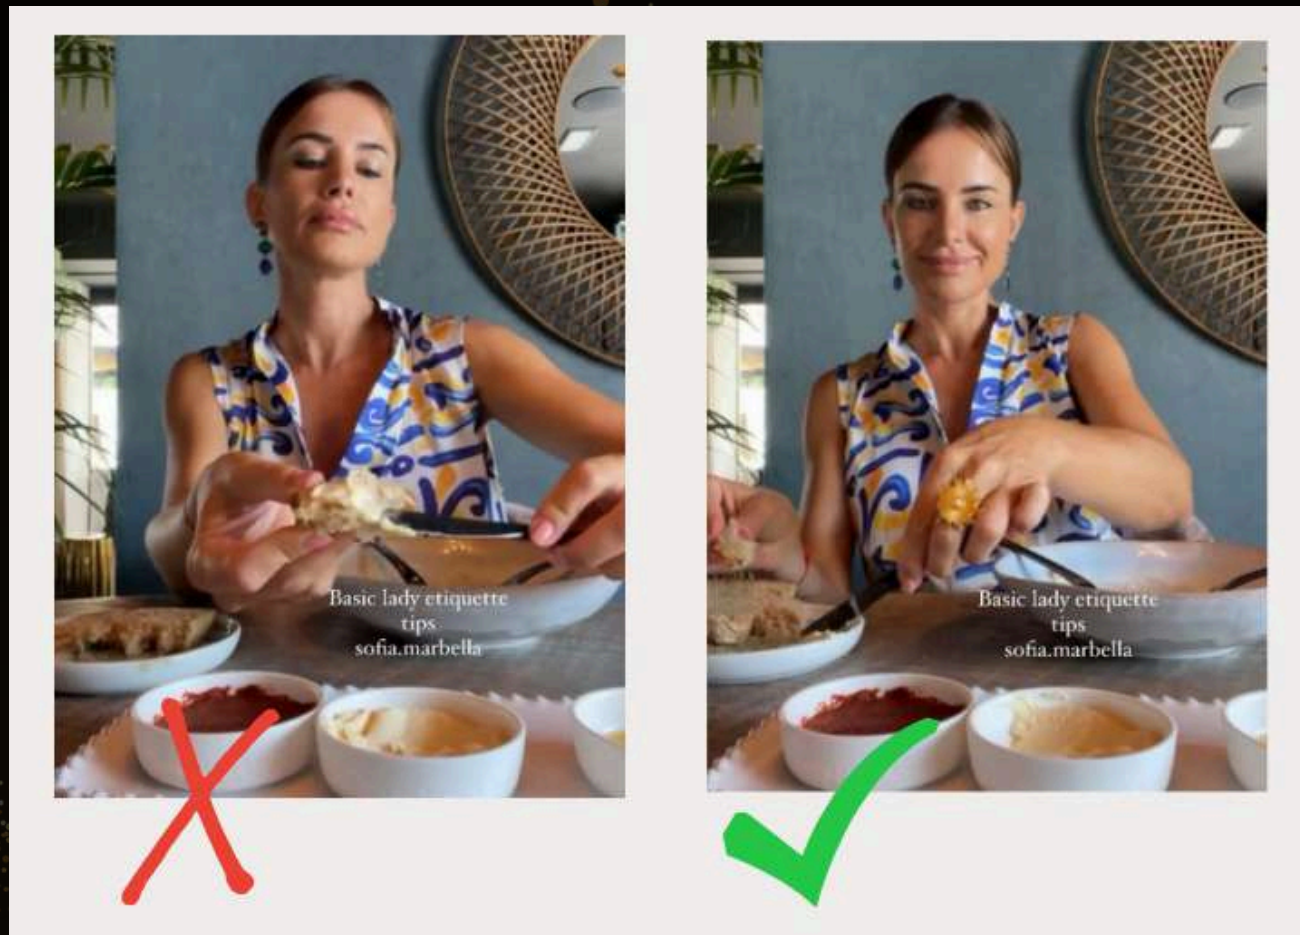

- Keep your back straight, head up and shoulders down – relaxed and smile. Do not lean back into your chairs or slouch
- Sitting down with your legs together, will keep your undergarments from showing, no matter how short your skirt may be. If you are wearing a skirt or dress, smooth it gently under you.
- Place your hands in your lap also to protect if you have a short dress from flashing your undergarments while crossing your legs. Remember if you wear short dress try legs together and crossed at the ankles only

Click here to watch reel

Table Manners

- Always take a little scoop onto your own bread plate using a serving knife and then butter up your toast
- Do not butter your bread from the common plate. Do not slouch over the plate and take the scoop of butter or any other condiments directly from the plate

Click here to watch reel

Child Safety

- While pregnant, take care to protect yourself and the baby. Make sure that the seat belt will go under the belly, between your breasts
- Never put the seat belt across the belly. If it is too tight, it might be uncomfortable for you and the baby

Click here to watch reel

Revolving Doors

- It is polite to hold the door for others. The man should hold it open when entering a hall through revolving doors. It is because he is physically stronger.
- The lady does not open the door first. If you are going as a couple, let the man go ahead and hold it open for you

Click here to watch reel

Eating CupCake

- Cut the cupcake in half using a knife and eat it like a sandwich. It helps the frosting to remain in between the cake pieces and prevent smearing across your face
- Don't eat a cupcake as it is with frosting all over your lips and face. It makes you look unlady-like and destroys your makeup

Click here to watch reel

Purse at Table

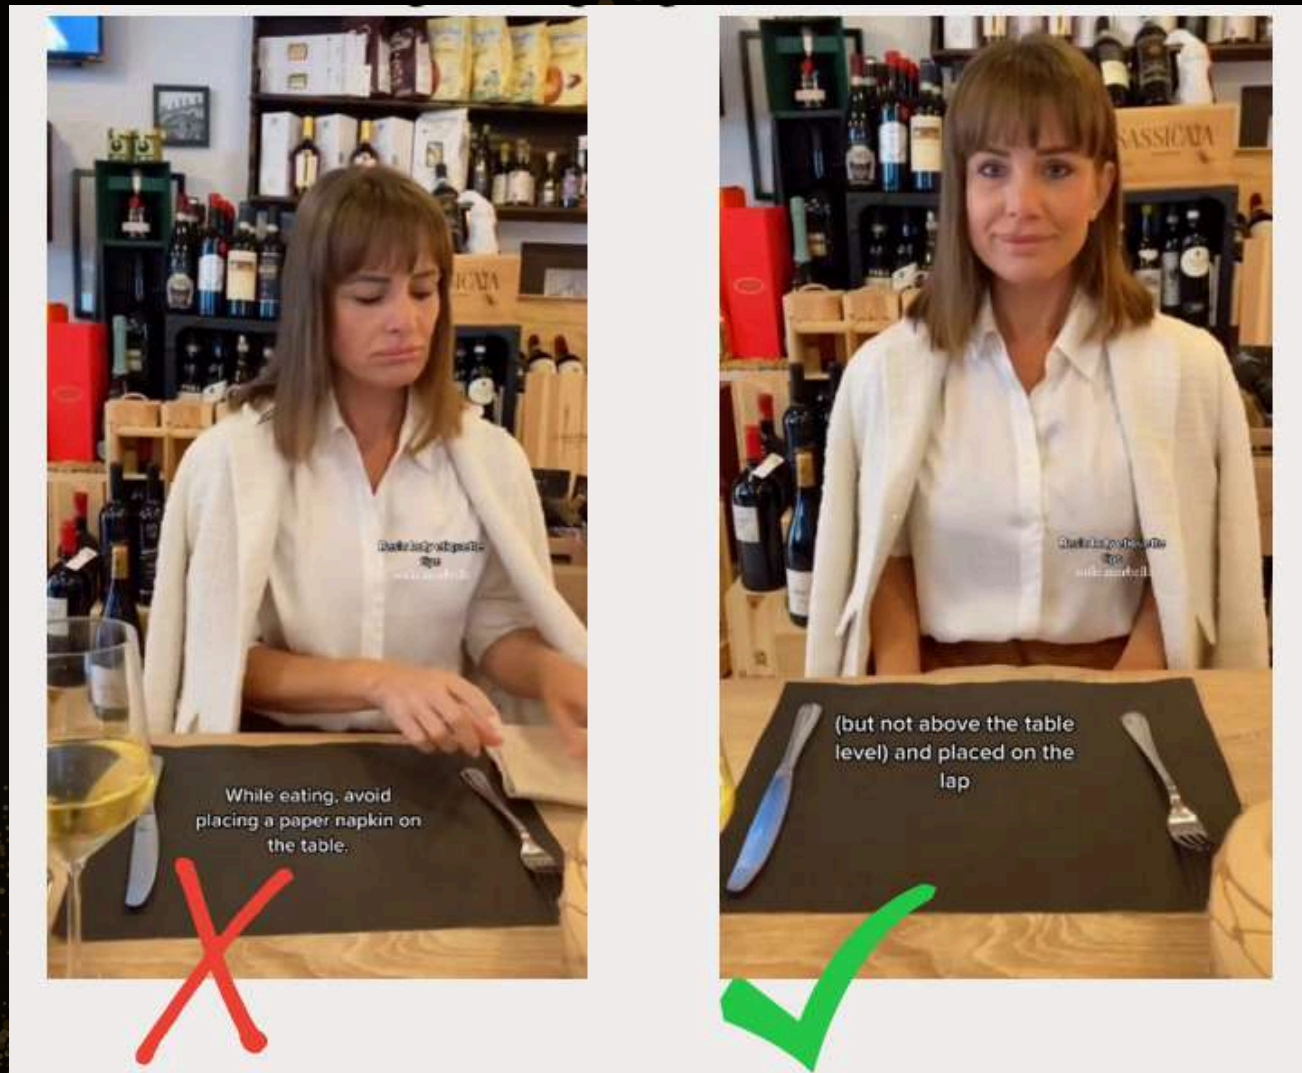

- Keep the bag below the table, behind you, or hang it on the back of your chair
- Never keep the bag on the table, especially beside the food plates

Click here to watch reel

Napkin at Table

- Keep the paper or cloth napkin on your lap. When you are finished and ready to get up, put it loosely on the left side of the plate
- Never keep the napkin on the table while eating. It is given by the restaurants to prevent spilling the food on your dress

Click here to watch reel

Eating Mussels

- The easiest way to eat mussels at a formal dinner served in their shells is to remove a mussel from its shell with fork or using an empty shell as pincers. Avoid closed mussels!
- Never eat the mussels with hand or lick the shell

Click here to watch reel

Dress and Stairs

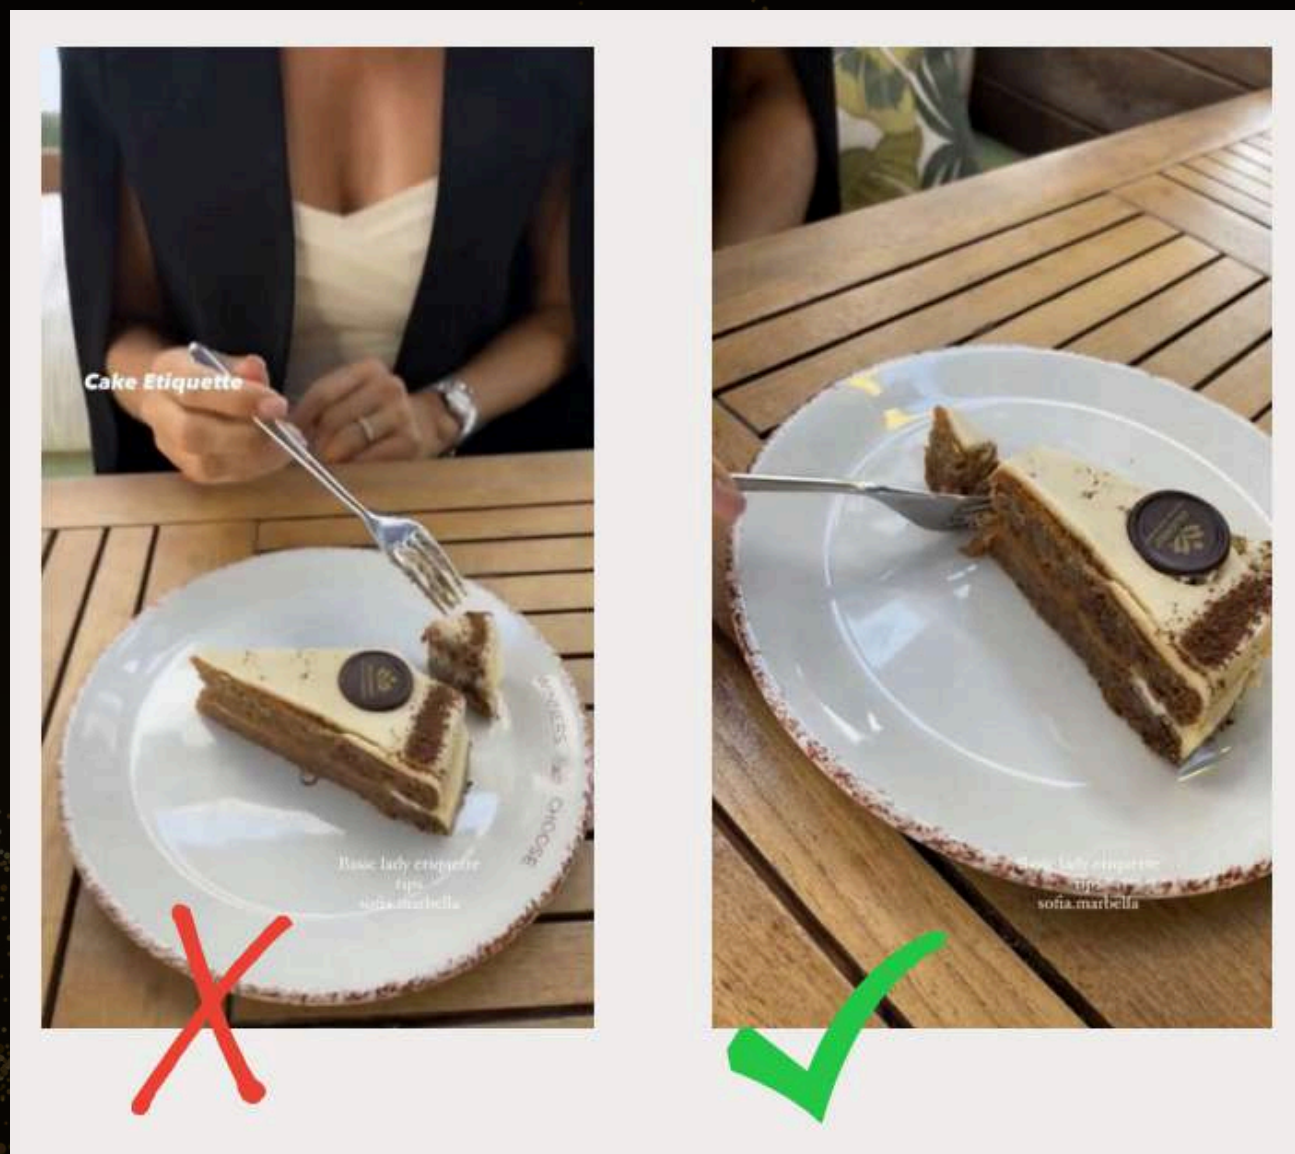

- Lift the dress up gently just enough to avoid tripping on the hem. Use both hands bend the knees and grab each side. Leave the dress just above the ankles.
- Do not hold the dress or skirt up too high

Click here to watch reel

A slice of cake

- When served a triangular slice of cake is, consume it starting from the sharp tip facing you.
- Do not start eating from anywhere

Click here to watch reel

Tight Dress and legs

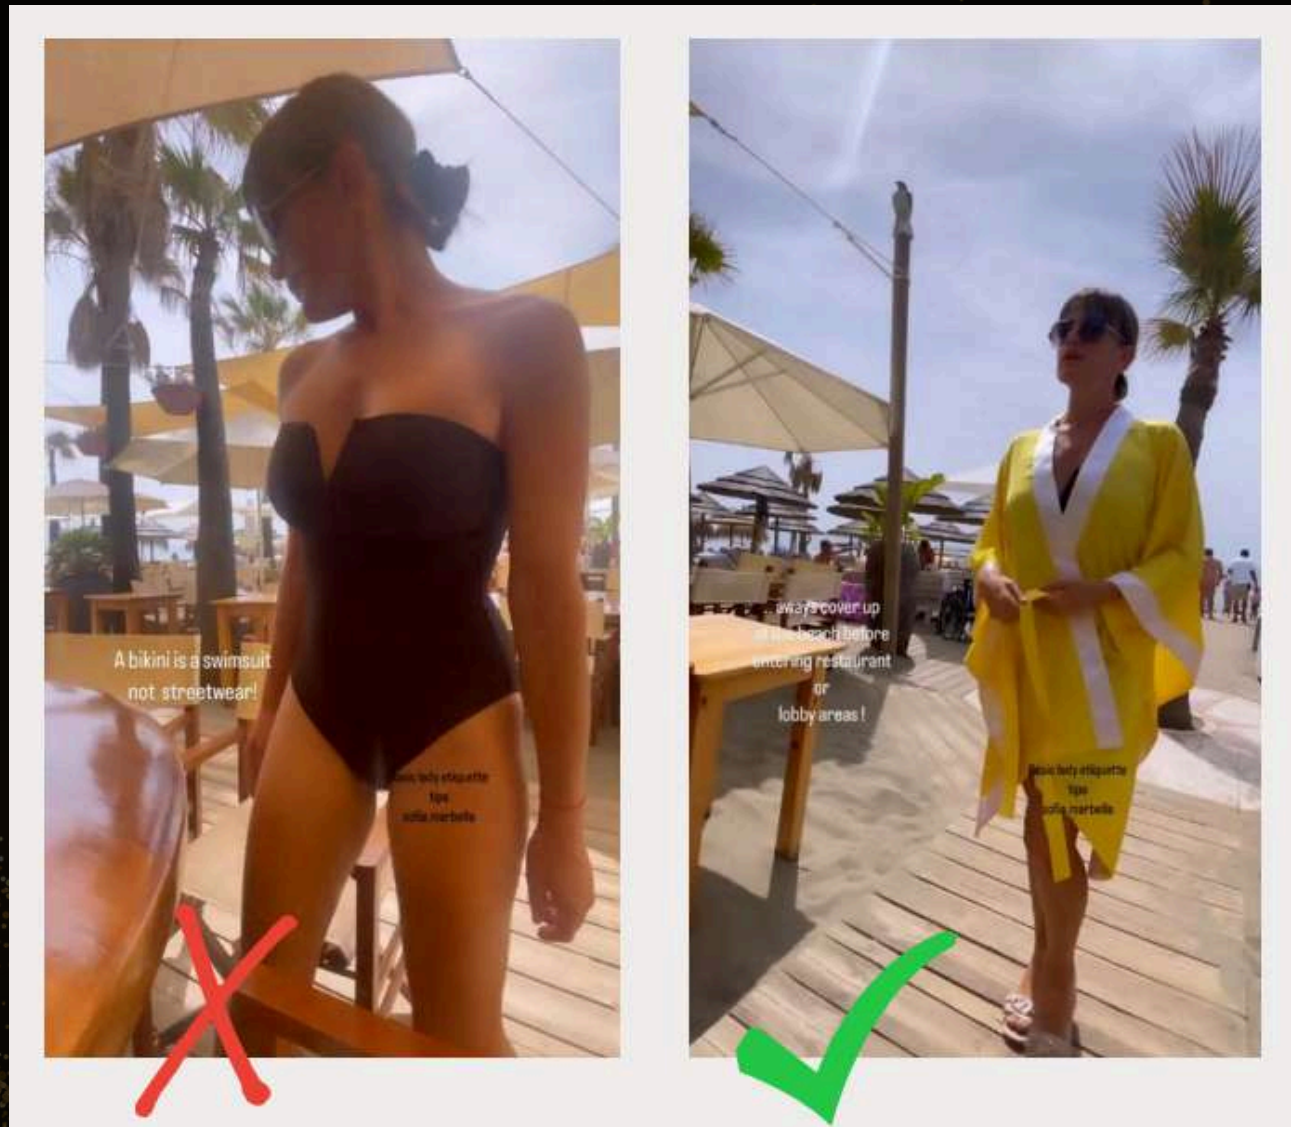

- How to sit in a tight dress: keep your knees together, rest your hands on the lap, place your clutch, jacket or other clothing items over your lap to avoid the risk of others seeing up your dress or skirt
- Don't cross your legs at the knees

Click here to watch reel

Swimsuits

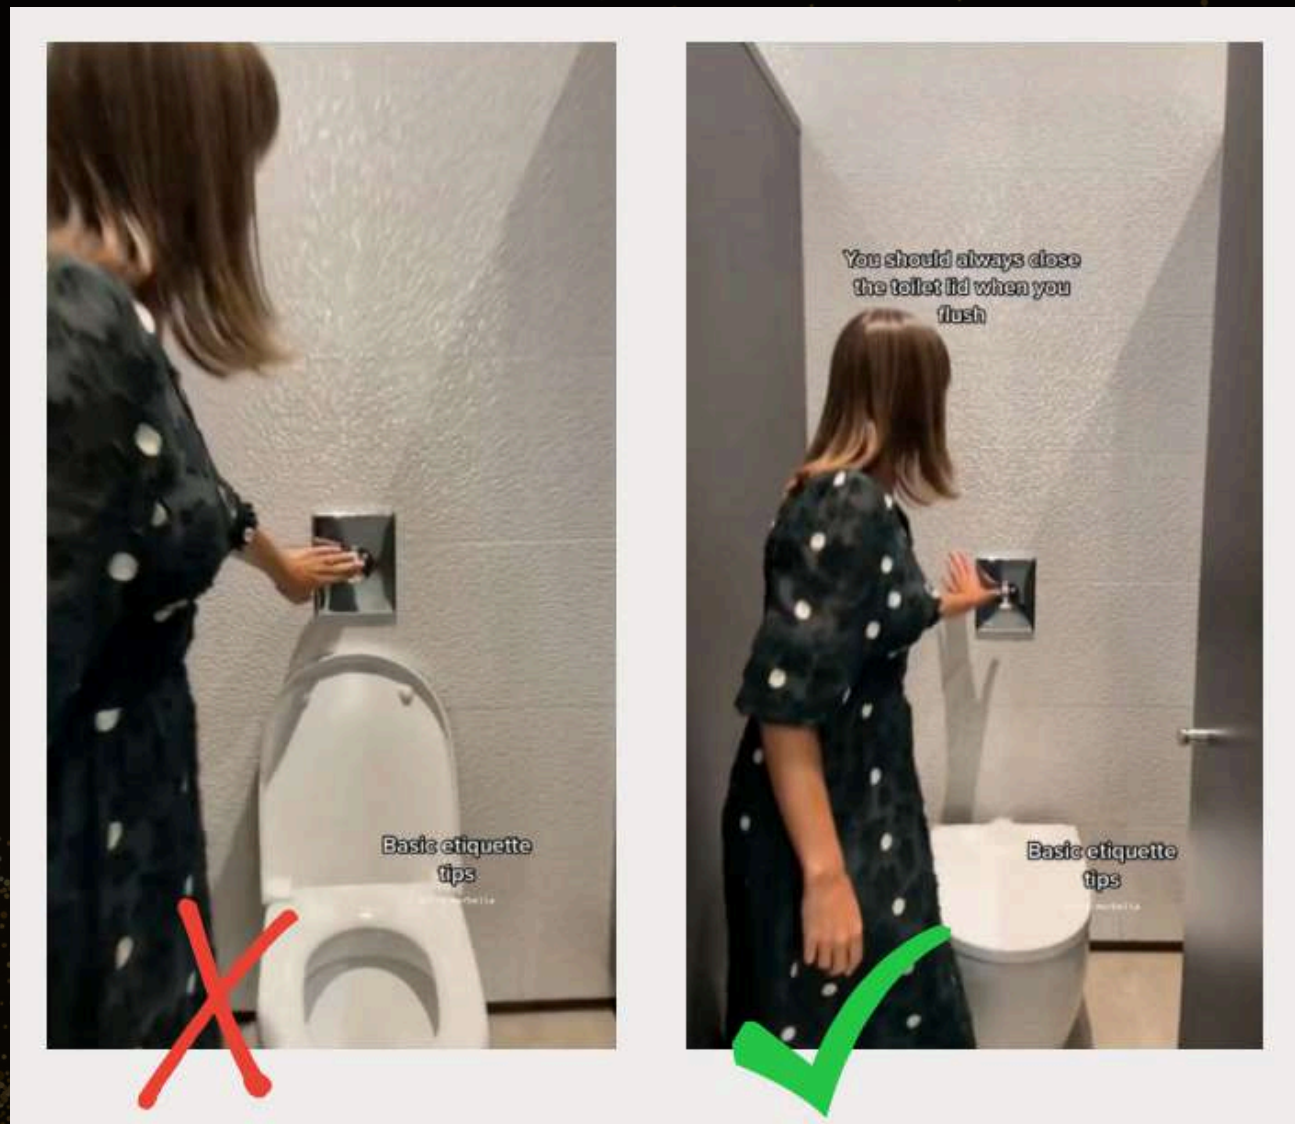

- A swimsuit is for sunbathing and to be worn on the beach only, when venturing off to the beach restaurant or surrounding areas, it is advisable to wear something more appropriate such as a bikini cover or sundress.
- Avoid venturing off to the beach restaurant or near by areas in the bikini without any cover

Click here to watch reel

Toilet flush

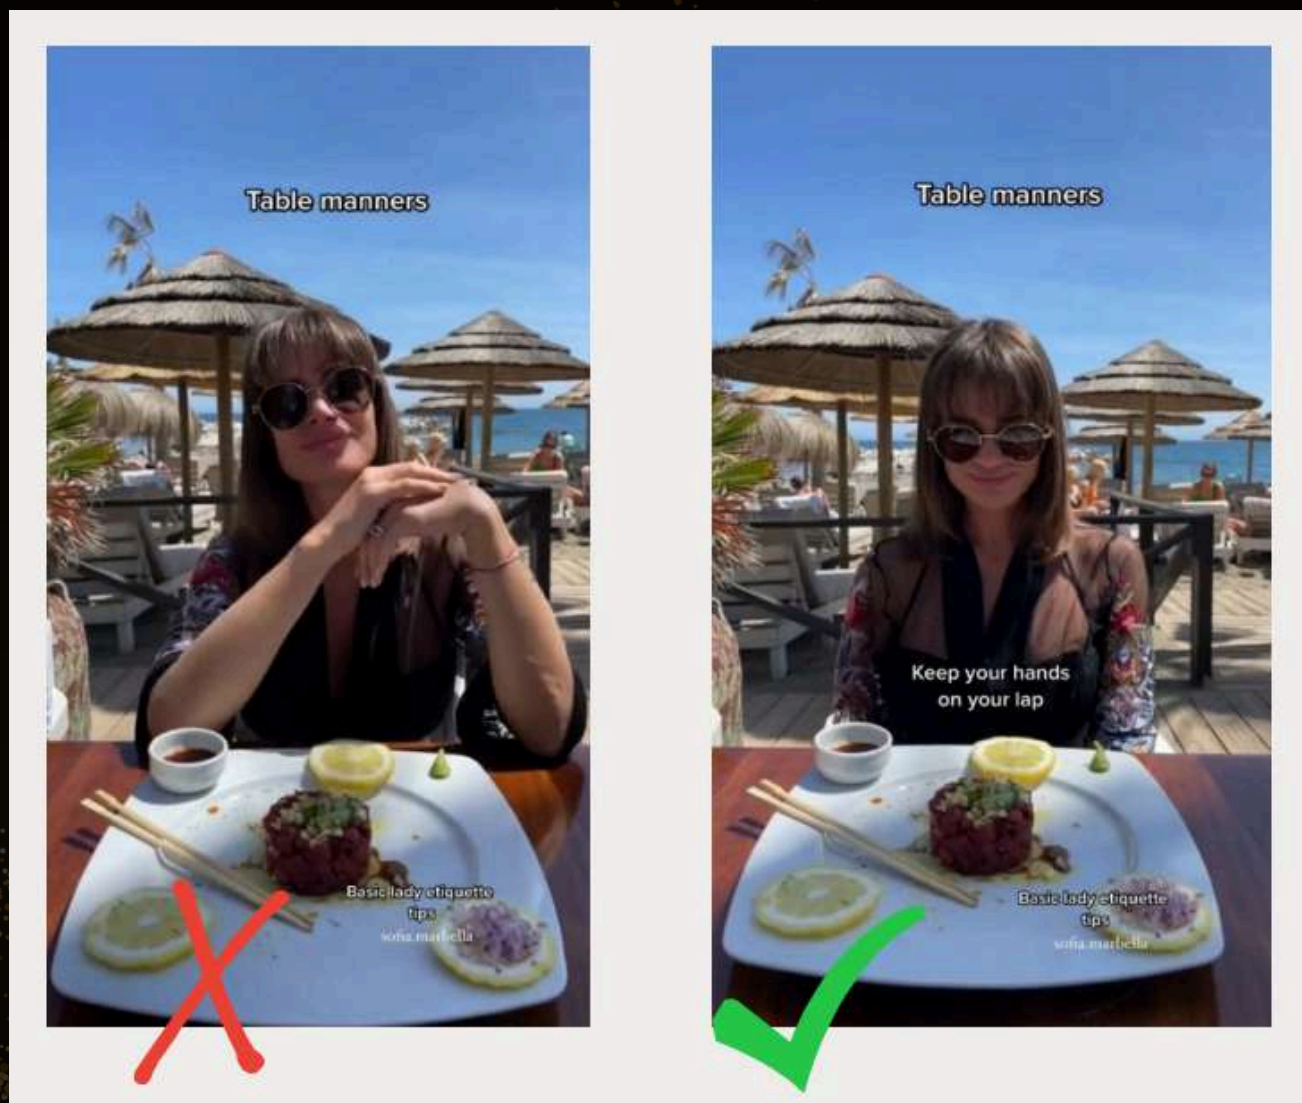

- Keep the toilet lid closed after use. The lid was designed to keep germs in their proper place, in the bowl and down the drain!
- If you flush with the lid open, those germs can float around your bathroom, landing on any available surface, such as towels, hairbrushes, or even toothbrushes.

Click here to watch reel

Elbows at table

- Avoid having your elbows on the dining table while eating or while food is being served.
- Avoid keeping the elbows at the table while talking or eating

Click here to watch reel

Sunglasses

- In an outdoor setting, when being introduced or conversing formally it is recommended to take off your sunglasses in order to allow for eye contact with the person you're speaking to.
- Avoid keeping the sunglasses on while talking or ignoring to make direct eye contact with the other person in a conversation

Click here to watch reel

Getting out of a car

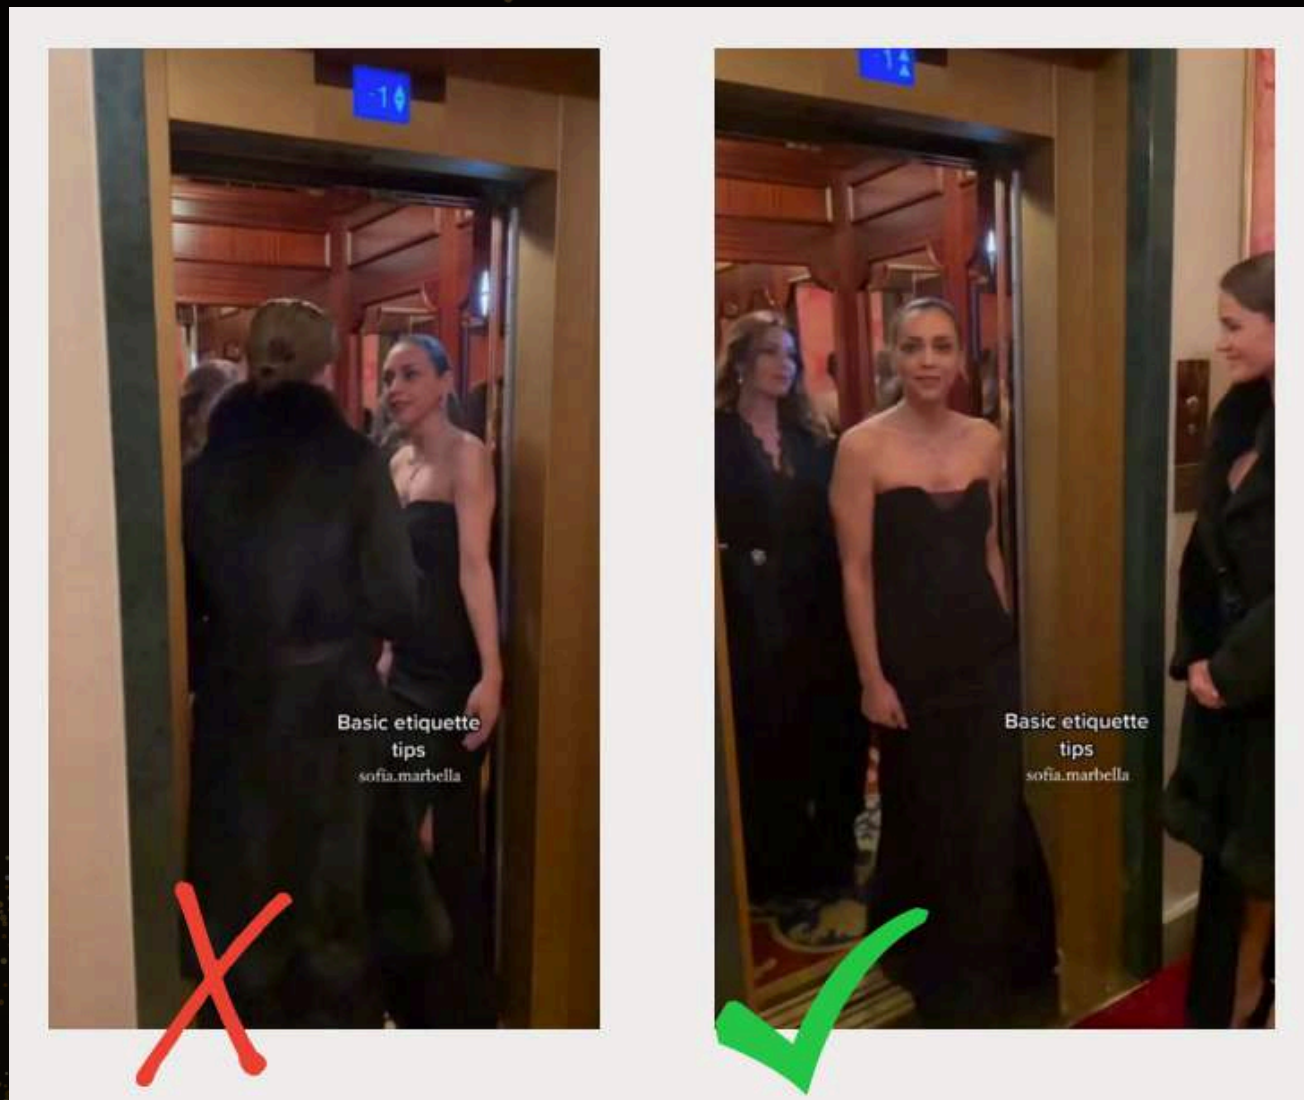

- Maintain your modesty and cover your décolletage before exiting a car, especially if you are wearing a low-cut plunging neckline outfits
- Avoid exiting the car without covering your cleavage

Click here to watch reel

Getting in a Elevator

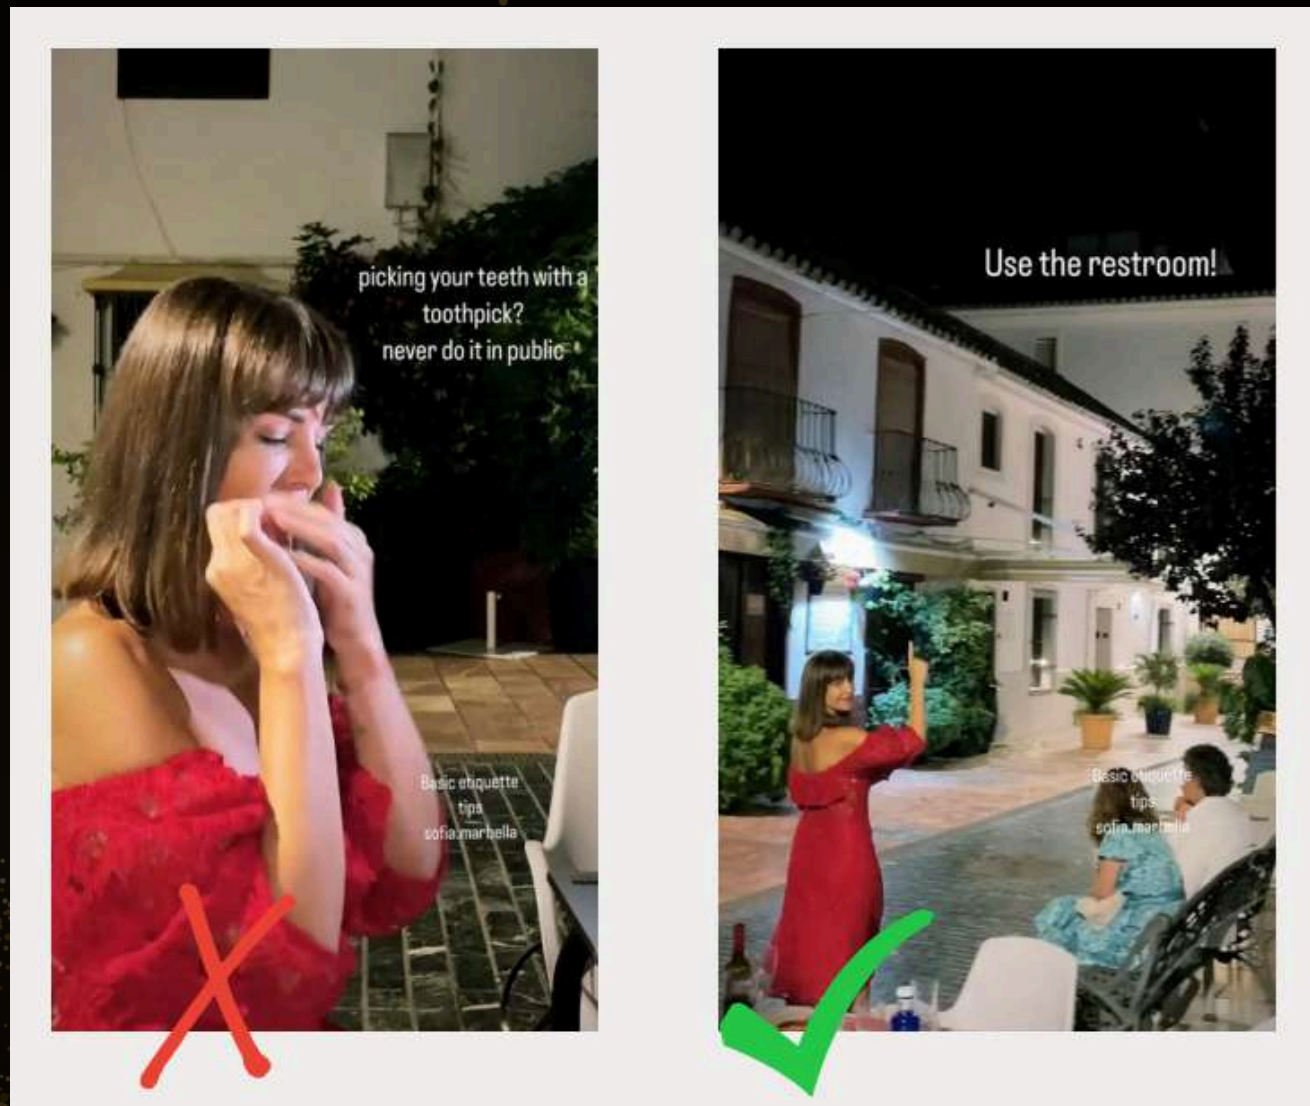

- Let's remember to be polite and respectful when using the elevator. We should stand away from the doors while waiting. Stand to the right of the doors, leaving the left and middle open for those exiting the elevator. Enter only once everyone has exited.
- Avoid entering the elevator while people are still leaving it.

Click here to watch reel

Toothpicking

- Never use toothpicks in public right after a meal.
- They should never be used or held in the mouth at table, or while conversing with any one, either at or away from the table.
- Go to the restroom to use it.

Click here to watch reel

